Re: Lisa Stevens, et ano v. Robert Hess, et al
Index No.: 07 CIV 6998(HB)
File No.: 2007-025898

Dear Judge Baer:

I am the Assistant Corporation Counsel assigned to represent defendants Robert Hess and Henry Kennedy in the above referenced action, in which pro se plaintiffs allege that while residing in a Department of Homeless Services (DHS) facility, DHS failed to accommodate some of their disabilities and involuntarily transferred them to different DHS facilities. This letter is in response to your Honor's request that my office contact non-City agencies, Aguila Inc., the Aladdin Hotel, and Volunteers of America, to ascertain whether they would be willing to accept service of plaintiffs' complaint on behalf of their employees named in plaintiff's complaint, or in the alternative, to provide the home addresses of these employees. I have contacted each of these entities and have been informed as to the following:

Defendants, Mercedes Santana (Aguila, Inc.) and Robert Mendez (Aladdin Hotel) agree to accept service at their place of business indicated below. Counsel for Volunteers of America has informed me that Volunteers of America will provide the home address for Sandra Dockery for the purpose of effectuating service upon the issuance of a court order.

Respectfully submitted,

Chevon Andre Brooks (CB 1616)
Assistant Corporation Counsel

Endorsement:

Thank you for contacting the employees of prospective defendants. I have signed the order for Volunteers of America - now the effort is to be sure the Marshal serves all the defendants. Please be sure to communicate with the plaintiff so he/she knows that the Marshall will serve the summons and complaint but he must ask Pro Se or do it (give them to US Marshal) himself or herself.
